Acknowledgements

This investigation heralds the efforts and energies of several individuals who generously lent their support to my investigation. I would here like to express my deepest gratitude to those companions and colleagues who informed, encouraged and inspired me in this undertaking. It is to you that I humbly submit this work.

To my supervisor, Mario Fumerton, for enthusiastically investing time, patience and countless pages of article printouts to my research. Your genuine interest and support sent me half way across the globe and kept me up several nights, restructuring and mind-mapping. I thank you for setting the bar so high.

To my Filipino family at Peacebuilder's Community. Elwyn, Kriz, Omar, Anilau, Joji, Christina, Darnell and all the amazing staff at Coffee for Peace who welcomed me, fed me, sang to me, taught me, and kept me well caffeinated. I hope to soon return to Davao and participate once more in the admirable work that you are accomplishing.

To the amazing individuals working in Pikit, who made my stay there not only possible but wonderfully pleasant, Ustadz Abdulkadir Abubakar, Adele Nayal, Ate Deng and my gracious and lovely host, Lucia Guerrero. I will remember your smiles and stories, and I hope we may once again share pandesal and mango meriendas.

Finally, to my Utrecht comrades. Anna for building me up when I needed it, enticing me to coffee when I didn't need it and providing hours of lunch time laughter. And to Jess, the fiercest of them all, thank you for making the commute the Hague the best part of my day and for never failing to remind me that we can wear heels and still love justice.
