

Acknowledgements

This thesis is the culmination of efforts and contributions of many individuals whom I would like to thank here. You made this research possible and unforgettable.

My supervisor dr. Chris van der Borgh of the Centre for Conflict Studies for the guidance and assistance in writing this thesis. Laurens Bakker, for generously letting me use your knowledge and work (in progress). A big thank you is also in order for taking me to the best warung and restaurants in Grogot and Balikpapan and letting me in on the secret that is ikan bakar.

To all the staff of Tropenbos International Program Indonesia and the guesthouse. Especially to Pak Petrus Gunarso for your knowledge, Pak Monang Panjaitan for your warmth and conversations and Ibu Yulita Lestiawati for your help and reminding me that life essentially is a search for love, family and Andrea Bocelli.

To my friend and interpreter Hari Dermanto. Not only did I greatly enjoy your company, your knowledge of East Kalimantan, law, politics and forestry issues proved to be vital to this thesis. Without you there would not be so much and so valuable field data. Terima kasih banyak, bung.

And finally, to Sarah Roest for your support, comments and patience. There is no distance too great.
